

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Our practice is committed to educating our patients about healthcare issues that affect them. As a result, we are providing you with general information about the Privacy Rule, a federal regulation of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) along with a brief overview of our Notice of Privacy. Our practice does comply with HIPAA regulations.

What is HIPAA and how does the Privacy Rule affect you? The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) gave the federal government the ability to mandate how healthcare plans, providers, and clearinghouses store and send a patient's personal information as it relates to healthcare.

The Privacy Rule was created to protect your rights as a patient of our practice and we are required by law to comply with this regulation. Under the Privacy Rule, you are guaranteed access to your medical records, allowed control over how your protected health information is used and disclosed and allowed to take action if your privacy is compromised by following the practice's policy. Our practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your personal information.

What is Individually Identifiable Health Information? Any health information you provide to our practice, including your mailing address. Information that is created and retained by our practice or received from another healthcare provider that relates to your treatment, healthcare operations, payment and/or that identifies you as an individual.

What is the Notice of Privacy Practice? The Notice of Privacy Practice informs our clients about their rights surrounding the protection of their Individually Identifiable Health Information and our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of such information. This notice applies to all records created, obtained or retained by our practice. We may update our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Our Notice of Privacy Practice will be posted in our reception area and you may ask for a copy at any time. The following categories describe the circumstances in which we may use and disclose your Individually Identifiable Health Information:

- Treatment Appointment Reminders
- Payment
- Health Care Operations
- Treatment Options
- Disclosures required by law Health-related benefits and services
- Release of Information to Family/Friends

The following categories describe unique situations in which we may disclose your Individually Identifiable Health Information:

Public Health Risks
Health Oversight Committees
Lawsuits and Similar Activities
Deceased Patients
Organ and Tissue Donation

Serious Threats to Health or Safety
Military National Security
Inmates
Worker's Compensation
Law Enforcement
Research

What are your rights concerning your Individually Identifiable Health Information? You have rights regarding the Individually Identifiable Health Information that we maintain about you. The policies and procedures for the following circumstances are listed in our Notice of Privacy Practices:

1. Confidential Communications
2. Requesting Restrictions
3. Inspection and Copies
4. Amendment
5. Accounting of Disclosures
6. Right to a Paper Copy of this Notice
7. Right to File a Complaint
8. Right to Provide an Authorization for Other Uses and Disclosures

If you have any questions regarding this notice or our Privacy Practices please contact:

Discovery Therapeutic Services, PLLC
Attn: Monica L Olson, LPCC
315 Main Street S, Ste 311
Minot, ND 58701
720.202.4100

I have read the short notice provided by Discovery Therapeutic Services, PLLC and have been informed of how to obtain more information regarding the practice's Notice of Privacy.

Signature

Date

Print Name